GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In speaking of this year's Annual Champion Stakes, Judge Burke has this to say in the Daily America of January 28:

"It matters not who framed the conditions of the Annual Champion Stakes, which is a fixture of the Coney Island Jockey Club fall meeting. The fact remains that to horsemen it appeals beyond all others. Once a man enters his foal or his yearling in that grandly devised stake, that colt or filly can start in the race each time it is run, provided he or she has not been declared out. And why should a man declare his entry out of such a stake unless the candidate is absolutely broken down? Therefore, as long as horses like Ethelbert, Maid of Harlem, Lothario, Brigadier, Prince of Melbourne, Ildrim, Disguise, Chacornac, Alcedo, Toddy, David Garrick, Rockton, Standing, Douro, Commando, Lance-man, All Green and Elkhorn have a possible chance to stand training, it will be possible for them to run in each renewal, the only additional cost being the starting fee. Consider how rich a stake this is and how cheap it is for horse owners. First money each year, $20,000; second, $2,000 to third, $750 to third. The owner of the winner at time of entry receives $1,000, the owner of second $600 and the owner of the third $250. The trainer of the winner receives $500. This last feature is so good a one that it has recently been imitated in England, where, in order to commemorate 'coronation year,' the trainer of the winner of the Manchester race will receive $500.

"The conditions of the Annual Champion Stakes also say that the death of a subscriber or transferee to this race does not disqualify the entry, provided it be assumed by the then owner of the horse. In fact, it begins to dawn upon turfmen that this clause should be adopted for all important stakes, so that the earning capacity of a high class colt or filly should not necessarily be limited if the subscriber died. The clause is already in force in a few of the great races of the year; why not in all the valuable stakes? The Annual Champion closes on July 15 of each year. If breeders do their full duty by this stake and enter their foals for it, thus laying the foundation for its success, there is no doubt that in the course of a few years it will be made doubly as valuable as it is, so that it may be equally as rich a stake as either of the three 'ten thousand pounders,' which are annually raced for now in England, and which this year will be failures, because many of the best of England's three and four-year-olds are not in them.

"The difference between the Annual Champion and the three big English stakes alluded to is that the American race can always be the medium of a meeting between the best horses in training year after year, provided they have been entered; while with the English stakes one contest for each ends the interest, and the horses who start, say, in 1902, are not necessarily eligible for its annual renewals, while those entered in the American race are eligible annually.

"Those good two-year-old performers of last year which have the right to run in the Annual this year include Masterman, Hyphen, The Goldfinder, Brunswick, Yankee, Compute, Saturday, Hanover Queen, Lux Casta, Tribes Hill, Chilton, Baron, Caughnawaga, De Reszke, Slipthrift, Goldsmith, King Hanover and the following highly spoken of dark ones: Scholarie, Blackmore, Major Daingerfield, Telescope, Knight Templar, Precenter and others."

President H. I. Wilson, of the Montana Jockey Club, has made the following announcement: "The Montana Jockey Club has decided to open its summer meeting at Butte on Saturday, June 14. Racing will continue at Butte and Anaconda for at least sixty days. We guarantee no purses will be less than $250. It is our aim to carry on high class racing, and also to secure the very best of officials, who will guarantee these results. Our stakes will be announced by February 20."

Of the sixty-seven candidates entered in the Kentucky Derby, fourteen are eligible to the Chicago classic, and what they do between now and next May will be watched with increasing interest. Among these are Abe Frank, Belle's Commoner, Allan-a-Dale, Blennenworth, Wyeth, Charles W. Meyer, Inventor, Red Hook and Slipthrift, any one of which has a chance on his two-year-old form, to land the $20,000 prize at Washington Park. Abe Frank will probably be the winter book favorite for the Kentucky Derby, and should he show the form as a three-year-old that he displayed as a two-year-old last spring, he will probably go to the post first choice with the betting public. However, Hans Wagner, Jordan, Charles W. Meyer, Jack Rattlin, Commissioner Forster, Allan-a-Dale and others will have many supporters.

There has been absolutely no work done among the thoroughbreds quartered at Churchill Downs, Louisville, Ky., for a few days on account of the severe storm that visited that section of the country. The weather, however, for the first three weeks in the year was sufficient to give all the trainers a line on their two-year-olds, and many fleet-footed youngsters are now laying up during this "spell" that have already done a quarter in better than 25 seconds. That sounds remarkable for this season of the year, but it is nevertheless true on account of the extraordinary weather conditions that prevailed and the excellent shape the track was in to give these youngsters their early work for so long a time previous to the present bad weather.

W. C. Whitney has definitely decided to remove his thoroughbreds to New Jersey. Harry Payne Whitney was at Lexington, Ky., last week, and made a short inspection of the stock. He visited both La Belle and Hamburg farms, at the latter place dining with J. E. Madden and looking over Ballyhoo Bey. He also spent a day at La Belle with H. P. Headley. The reason given was that at Rancocas he and his father would have a better opportunity to see the horses often, and, since their horses are their pleasure, they want them close at hand.

Clarence Mackay, the young millionaire, will make a strong bid for turf honors this season. In a corner of the old Monmouth Park race course, close to Eatontown, N. J., he has fifteen horses in winter quarters. These thoroughbreds are of the highest type. With them he hopes to defeat the champions owned by W. C. Whitney, James R. Keene and J. B. Haggin.

John W. Schorr received an offer of $8,000 for a two-year-old half brother to Endurance by Right. The colt is unnamed, and by Pirate of Penzance—Early Morn. Mr. Schorr refused to part with him, as he has not been fully tried. Mr. Schorr refused to give the name of the eastern man who made the offer.

LOUISVILLE STAKES CLOSE FEBRUARY 8

Owners should not lose track of the fact that the stakes of the New Louisville Jockey Club for the spring meeting of nineteen days close Saturday, February 8. The meeting runs from the third to the twenty-fourth of May inclusive. Of the nine rich stakes to be decided, that time-honored classic, the Kentucky Derby, heads the list with a value of $6,000 to the winner. The principal two-year-old event is the Nursery Stakes at four and one-half furlongs with $6,000 guaranteed, of which $4,000 goes to the winner, $700 to the second and $300 to the third. The nominator of the winner to get $600; of the second horse $250 and the third $50. The seven other fixtures are The Debutante, Bashford Manor, Juvenile, Bluegrass, Frank Fehr Stakes, The Clark Handicap and Kentucky Oaks. Entry blanks can be obtained at this office. All communications should be addressed to D. F. Dressen, secretary, New Louisville Jockey Club, Louisville, Ky.

Time, 2:24, 51½, 1:18½, 1:46½.

Winner—B. or br. g. by King Regent—Cassandra. Went to post at 2:16. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Bob Palmer finally found his speed in the mud. Hoar waited to the half before he called upon him when he came away well in hand and was easily the best. Monda was the only other serious contender and is about due to win. Courtier owed his prominence at the end to Woods' vigorous ride. Kastaine broke slowly and made up ground. Rey del San Juan was out of place; wants a long race in good going. It was a very bad lot.

Overweights—The Gaffer, 2 pounds.

Bob Palmer, show, 1 to 2. Monda, show, 4 to 5. Courtier, show, 4 to 5.

Time, 1:21, 25, 43½.

Winner—B. c. by Foul Shot—Rebecca Panique. Went to post at 2:44. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Hudson was skillfully handled. After waiting until the turn for home he drew up and passed Amoruna, which received a running break. The latter stuck well after showing a clever turn of speed, which could probably be better utilized on a fast track. Nigrette is speedy and game and finished strongly in the worst going. She showed much improvement and should win soon, especially in sloppy going. Montezuma ran somewhat improved. The others do not call for much.

Hudson, show, 1 to 10. Amoruna, show, 2 to 5. Nigrette, show, 4 to 1.

Time, 2:51, 51½, 1:10.

Winner—Ch. f. by Lord Esterling—Glen Ellen, by Glengarry. Went to post at 3:02. At post 9 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Esternell was lucky and received a perfect ride. Woods took her in hand the first half with good results. Montoya showed a clever turn of speed and stuck better than usual. Loss of Langden is evidently a quitter. Baltest, in spite of pronounced shoulder lameness, ran well. Chandoo ran away three miles before the race.

Scratched—30471 Rubino, 109.

Esternell, show, 6 to 5. Montoya, show, 6 to 5. Loss of Langden, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—Ch. g. by Rousseau—La Reina. Went to post at 3:36. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Diderot put up a game and apparently hopeless stretch chase. He caught the pacemaker tiring to almost a walk right at the end. Pat Morrissey stole a long lead at the first turn. Quadra, outrun in the first half, began closing up thereafter and ran a remarkably game race under pressure throughout. Norford ran improved and made up much ground in the last half. Montana Peeress ran well but was outclassed.

Overweights—Quadra, 5 pounds; Montana Peeress, 1.

He is in rare form and was eased up at the end. Bard Burns ran remarkably well throughout and was going strongly at the end. Huachuca fell far out of the contention in the first half. A very weak ride was given to him. He was closing up strongly in the last quarter after traveling in the heaviest going throughout. Mission closed a big gap. Ned Dennis was fresh and good, but was outclassed. Isaline was palpably short.

Went to post at 4:24. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second driving. Eonic got a lucky break, but had to be driven early to keep up. She pulled to the front suddenly when Gusto collapsed unexpectedly in the last furlong. The latter was fresh and good again and is best in the mud. Bragg showed speed throughout, finished fast, and ran the best race of his career. Commissioner Forster began slowly and under weak handling, lost too much ground in the first half, but closed fast. He must have a longer race to show to better advantage. Captivate tired keeping up with the early pace and may be overdone. Bab ran well. Lady Sterling showed speed, but lacked condition. She looked first class, but ran high.

Scratched—30391 Nellie Forest, 99.

Went to post at 3:33. At post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second the same. Tambourine II. was favored with racing luck at the start. She showed the most speed and won with something in reserve. Deadly Night Shade had to pull up on the first turn and had much taken out of her in the early stages to keep within striking distance of the leaders. Laracor ran his race. Palms was practically left but ran well. Swan Dance showed speed but tired when the real test came.

Went to post at 4:03. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Jim Winn appeared to be sulking the first part, but came fast in the last quarter and won full of running. Lizzie Tello was responsible for all the bumping and interference. Colette saved ground on the last turn. Salome, with clear sailing, would have been in the money. Dominis' race was a bad one. He was interfered with, but not enough to ruin his chances had he raced up to his previous mark. Throw this race out. Laura's First had no mishaps and performed poorly.

Ducassa, with an even break, could not have lost. He was forced to run all around his field and is in grand form at present. Tom Curl showed speed but when Also Ran II. raced upon even terms May struck the latter across the head several times. The stewards set him down indefinitely for this. Jessie Y. caused the long delay at the post.
